Roberta Lee Woods is a painter and collage artist inspired by nature and its many layers of color and texture. She creates the mood and atmosphere of the ocean near her home. Recent travel to Holland, Czech Republic and Belize has led to series of both paintings and photography capturing old world light and texture.

Roberta is inspired by Dutch Masters such as Vermeer and Rembrandt, as well as more contemporary artists: Marc Rothko, Joseph Cornell, and Helen Frankenthaler. She received a B.F.A. at The Maryland Institute, College of Art in Baltimore, MD, and a M.A. from CSU, Chico in Digital Imagery.

She continues to explore art processes, including encaustic, paper making and book arts. The artist also offers workshops in collage at her studio.
